A Perfect Series

Let's say you have a sentence that includes a series—that is, a list. Here are some tips to help you get it right!

Place the word and or the word or between the last two items in a series.

For example:

Kim goes to dance class on Monday, Wednesday, and Saturday.

David doesn't like spinach, olives, or hot peppers on his pizza.

Use commas to separate items in a series of three or more items.

You do need a comma after each item in this series:

Frank broke his nose, his right arm, his left thumb, and his left ankle.

You don't need a comma between the items in this sentence:

Julie broke her left wrist and her right ankle.

Note: There are different opinions about whether it's always necessary to place a comma before the and or the or that comes before the last item. In the U.S., it is common to use this final comma—so unless you are told otherwise, go ahead and place a comma between the last two items in a list.

Directions: Consider the series in each of the following sentences. If it is written correctly, write "C" on the line. If there are any mistakes, write "M" and correct the mistakes. (For this activity, place a comma between the last two items in the list.) We did the first one for you.
